UN in General

Dag Hammarskjöld Centenary Lectures and Conversations Series

<http://www.un.org/depts/dhl/events/lectures/index.htm>

“The Dag Hammarskjöld Library marks the centenary of the birth of former Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld, and sees this as an opportunity to reaffirm his legacy, the values and impact of the work of the United Nations. To honour the memory of Dag Hammarskjöld, the Library is organizing a Lectures and Conversations Series with the support of the Government of Sweden.”

Official Document System (ODS) – Additional Search Option

<http://documents.un.org>

“The United Nations today announced the availability of an additional search capability on its Official Document System (ODS). In its current state, users have access to two search forms that use combined metadata and full text search options. The new addition, to be known as “Global Search”, is based on a very popular, widely used global search engine that will provide ODS users with familiar and flexible search options. Access to this search option may be obtained through <http://documents.un.org>, the home page of its public Official Document System.” (Press Release PI/1642, 15 April 2005)
